Holiday Event - Friday, December 18

Come join us Friday, December 18th

in the Clubhouse for some holiday goodies and treats.

Stop by between 4pm and 7 pm.

Winter Weather Caution

1. If you should notice any leaks in your apartment notify the office right away so it can be taken care of.
2. Be cautious of walkways in the event of ice or snow.

Check out the new look of the Clubhouse!

Holiday Special- Receive a $200 referral fee on an application to Oswego Cove. Contact office for details.

Garages Available for rent over the winter months.

Note: There will be a designated space behind the garages to discard trees after the holidays. Signs will be posted.

ZOO Lights

The Zoo Lights are back at the Oregon Zoo and is reported to be better than ever. This is a Portland tradition that should not be missed.

Traditional Holiday Happenings in Portland, OR

Portland Grotto Festival of Lights

The Grotto's Christmas Festival of Lights is the largest Christmas choral festival in the world. The festival features nearly 160 indoor holiday concerts performed by many of the region's finest school, church and civic choirs. Offering a family-oriented blend of traditional celebration and serene reflection, the festival theme reflects the special season of hope that Christmas offers to many thousands of families from around the Pacific Northwest.

With its floor-to-ceiling Christmas tree, festive table settings and Yuletide decorations throughout the historic tea court and mezzanine, the Heathman's annual Holiday Tea is a perfect respite after shopping with friends, or as a family prelude to the Nutcracker Ballet at the nearby Keller Auditorium.

Portland Christmas Ships

The 2015 Christmas Ships Parade season is upon us. The ships will parade on the Columbia and Willamette Rivers for 15 nights. There are six nights where there is a combined fleet. The other nine nights, each fleet parades it's respective river.
